VOL. XXVI.

STANFORD, KY., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1897.

NO. 77

MATRIMONIAL.

B. P. Bucke and Miss Josie Hall, each 21, were married at Moreland yesterday.

Charlie Baugh and Miss Lena Kitts, both of the Sautley section, were united heart and hand yesterday.

Marion Williams and Miss Angie Gooch, both of the Southern end, will be married at Rev. M. A. Middleton's to-day.

A youth named T. Allen McQuary has struck the State and tells an improbable story of being on his way around the world to win an Arkansas girl on a wager.

The engagement of Miss Mary Walker Rose, daughter of Rev. L. W. Rose of Harrodsburg, to Charles E. Dallam, of Henderson, is announced. The marriage will occur Jan. 17.

N. D. Snow and Miss Maggie Russell, both of the West End, were married at the court-house yesterday by Judge Dawson. They were accompanied by Mr. W. C. Wolford.

Col. George W. Kavanaugh, of Waterford, N. Y., will be married Dec. 2, to Miss Julia Rickman, of Louisville, whom he rescued from drowning at Nantasket Beach, Mass., while she was bathing in the surf last summer.

In New York Isaac Goldstein has just been married to Katie Silverstein. Mr. and Mrs. Silverstein have celebrated their golden wedding, and in Boston Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein are about to celebrate their silver wedding.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Misses Mamie and Laura Carter, of the Halls Gap section, were with friends here Tuesday.

Mr. J. Edmiston's school closed Wednesday afternoon. This makes his second term as a pedagogue. He is one of Crab Orchard's most intelligent young men.

Mr. J. C. McWhorter had his father, mother and other relatives as guests a few days. Messrs. B. L. Banks and Joe Brooks, two knights of the grip, were in town recently.

Mr. Joe McClure and wife were presented by Dr. Will J. Edmiston with a nice baby girl Sunday. May her life always be as pure and bright as the day she first saw the light.

Miss Ella Watson, of Cincinnati, arrived Tuesday and is being entertained by Mrs. D. B. Edmiston at her pretty home on Depot street. Mrs. Doc Dillon has returned from Nicholasville and Mrs. Pettus from Louisville.

Rev. Gashwiler has been invited to hold Thanksgiving services at the Christian church Thursday morning. Before the services begin the children will give an entertainment. A more extended notice will be given in the next INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Mrs. Eliza Hansford, of Manchester, came over to see her sick granddaughter, who has scarlet fever, the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Pate King. Mrs. Malinda Ross and Mrs. Joe Pleasants are sick. Mrs. Lee Crady, of Stanford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. McClure, and new niece. Senator-elect George T. Farris and Mrs. Smith, of Lancaster, were guests of relatives here this week. Pretty Miss Minnie Munday, of Stanford, came over for Miss Myrtle Hughes, Tuesday afternoon.

Col. Jack Chinn, the "hero of a hundred tales"—the fierce and blood-thirsty Jack Chinn was telling, almost with tears in his eyes, the other evening, of the death of his favorite hound (I am sorry to have forgotten his name) who was burned, together with several of the colonel's fine race horses, only last week in his barn near Harrodsburg. He said: "I made Uncle Harry, my trainer, go and get the charred remains of the old dog and we buried him with fitting honors."—Lexington Leader.

The end of harvest time is universally set apart for thanksgiving. Whether in the form of the American Thanksgiving day, the English harvest home, the Scotch Halloween, the Hebrew Feast of Tabernacles, the Roman festival in honor of the goddess Ceres or the Greek festival in honor of Demeter, the instinct prompting it is the same. Since men first became tillers of the ground their two greatest annual events have been seedtime and harvest.—New York Sun.

Consumption Positively Cured.

Mr. R. B. Greave, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up by doctors, and all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief, spent many nights sitting up in a chair, was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the greatest remedy ever made as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It doesn't fail. Trial bottles free at W. B. McRoberts' Drug Store.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look; if your stomach be disordered, you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys be affected, you have a pained look. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys. Purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and all blemishes, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at W. B. McRoberts' Drug Store. 50 cents per bottle.

LANCASTER.

J. Mort Rothwell has returned from Missouri, after an absence of two weeks.

Miss Sallie Elkin is visiting friends in Somerset. Prof. B. F. Evans is attending circuit court at Hyden.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church realized about $50 on their show of chrysanthemums, which was continued to Monday. It was a novel and attractive exhibition.

Gov. Bradley has written Mr. Jim "Crow" Dillon that he has ordered the flag which he gave him to unfurl in Central Park and it will be here in a few days.

The season of Thanksgiving and feasting on turkey is at hand and I don't see why such a raid is made on the turkey, when 1st Timothy 4:4 says that every creature of God is good if it be received with thanksgiving.

It is said that there will be about 20 applicants for the position of turnpike superintendent after the roads have been purchased and that their bids will range from $400 to $1,000. Mr. W. B. Moss, a fine business man, tells me that he will offer to do the work acceptably for $450 per annum. Of course the court will employ a competent man at the lowest salary.

The nomination of Hon. Robert J. Breckinridge by the INTERIOR JOURNAL, for attorney general, meets the hearty approval of his many warm friends in this county. The judge is well known here and his ability to fill the position in an acceptable manner will make him a formidable candidate. He is peculiarly fitted for the position and I move that his nomination and election be made unanimous.

Circuit court convened Monday Judge M. C. Sautley presiding, with Commonwealth's Attorney J. S. Owsley, Clerk Mason, Sheriff Robinson and their deputies and Jailer Bengie, each ready to do his part in the administration of justice. The court delivered an instructive and comprehensive charge to the grand jury, in which he defined the different offenses and directed them how to proceed during their investigations. He was especially elaborate on violations of the election laws. He, truthfully, said that the Australian system presents more opportunities for corruption than the old system, since a floater can sell to each party to vote, or to stay at home, and if he goes behind the curtain he can do as he pleases. He said that it is not bribery in contemplation of law, to pay a man not to vote, or to stay from the polls, but that it is only bribery to pay a man to vote contrary to his sentiments, the offense being in inducing him to vote against his will and not in influencing him not to vote. The latter plan is generally adopted and is more successful, and I see but little harm in paying a man to stay at home in place of going to the polls and voting the republican ticket. It is only paying him to refrain from evil. He asserted that the giving of liquor on election day is a violation of law, even if it is not passed from hand to hand, but the giver points to it and says he is not giving it, but that any one can himself. His instruction on the bird law caused Mr. C. K. Poin-dexter, one of the grand jury, to remark that he believed that the other 11 jurors were guilty of violating that law. There is but little business to be disposed of, really not enough to keep the wheels of justice oiled and moving. The lawyers will not realize enough to buy coal for the winter. Sam Owsley says that another court like this would almost induce him to resign. This state of affairs shows, however, that the county is in a peaceable and prosperous condition and that officials have done their duty in the past by disposing of the work as it appeared. William Spencer, colored, was fined $50 on the charge of furnishing liquor to a minor, and Obe Garnett $20 for selling liquor unlawfully, both parties failing to answer. The bond of Mark Jennings, charged with malicious shooting, was forfeited, he failing to appear. Miss Minnie Dutton, thoroughly experienced in typewriting, was appointed as examiner for this county. Court will likely adjourn in a few days.

Thanksgiving is the home day. It is the day for the heart and its affections. It is a day for the dreams and the ideals of youth and maiden. It is a day for youth away from home to freshen their hopes and kindle anew their aspirations.—Chicago Tribune.

It would take a line of cradles extending around the globe to accommodate the 37,000,000 babies that are born in this world every year.

Ghent is arranging to celebrate her 100th anniversary. Those who have been there imagined that she was considerably older than that.

Rio coffee is at a lower price than ever before, No. 7 spot being quoted at 6 1/2 cents a pound. Future market has broken 15 points.

The average woman couldn't be a Christian a minute after she believed that the Lord didn't love her husband.

THE BIRD OF ALL BIRDS TO-DAY.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Dr. Outrid, of Richmond, Va., has accepted the pastorate of the Episcopal church of Richmond, Ky.

The meeting at Logans Creek church closed Tuesday night. Much interest was manifested but there were no additions.

At Rockville church, in Webster county, Toy Allen, a young man, horse-whipped Rev. Joplin, who had reproved him for bad behavior during the services.

On Sunday morning and evening Rev. W. S. Grinstead will talk about What Belongs to Caesar and What Belongs to God. He will also have something to say about elections and the like.

Rev. R. B. Mahony has accepted a call to the Mt. Tabor church at Old Paint Lick, and will preach there the second and fourth Sundays. The rest of his time will be spent with the Preachersville church.

The Louisville Presbytery is preparing an indictment against Rev. Dr. W. W. Houston, charging him with holding and teaching views contrary to the standard of the Presbyterian church. He believes in sanctification.

Laurence Dennis, a precocious child of three years, of Atlanta, Ga., is attracting large crowds at the home of his parents by preaching with the vim and gravity of manhood. From hearing his parents read scripture texts he has a good fund of quotations.

In his meeting at Pleasureville, the Rev. Jacob Ditzler said before an immense congregation, he strongly upheld and defended the position of Dr. Whittitt, and said there was no material difference between Dr. Whittitt and the Methodists. He said that he also hoped that the Baptists of the country would soon lay aside a relic of the dark ages, and teach that pouring is the proper mode of baptism.

Large congregations are attending the services each morning at 10 and evening at about 6 1/2 o'clock at the Baptist church. Rev. Dew is an eloquent and forcible speaker, whose heart is full of love for God and his fellowman, and his sermons will benefit every attentive listener. In his first sermon Tuesday night he said that the world is dying for the need of kind words, which are so easily given and so often withheld. The singing is excellent and quite an enjoyable feature.

At the Lancaster Christian church Sunday night the union meeting of the Stanford Christian Endeavors and the Societies there will be held and following is the program: Welcome address. Response by Mr. Jack Beazley. Song by the choir. Prayer. Singing. Scriptural reading. Solo, Miss Clara Mershon. Oration, "I May Have Faults but There Are Others," Master Robert Harding Waters. Song by choir. General discussion of the lesson topic, "Temperance," led by Messrs. Logan R. Hughes and Lucien M. Lewis. Song by choir. Sentence prayer. Anthem by the Kentucky Quartette, Mrs. J. W. Hayden, Miss Clara Mershon, Messrs. Joe F. Waters and Carl A. Moore, with Miss Ellen Ballou, as organist. Recitation, Miss Maggie Bright. Song by the choir. Benediction. Services begin at 6 1/2 o'clock.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—No other gala season of the year, not even Christmas, sets in motion so many forces, sees cars and boats so packed with children and grandchildren going back to the old home, sees old people so forgetting their age, and young people so honoring the old, and altogether witnesses such beautiful reunions as we find at Thanksgiving. Men immersed in business cares take time now to run up to the rocky farm in Massachusetts, or the prairie home in Wisconsin, or the wheatfield of Dakota, to be boys again beside their parents. "I'm growing to be an old gentleman," said my friend, whose 88 years are his crown of glory, "but I tell you when Thanksgiving comes I'm a boy again, for my children and their families all come back to keep the day with me."—Christian Herald.

LOGAN—SAUFLEY.

A BRILLIANT CHRYSANTHEMUM WEDDING.

As if to smile his benison on the heaven-made union, the sun shone in fullest November splendor all the day Tuesday and as the trail of his brightness was fading out in the West, the words were said that linked the hearts of Rev. Sanford M. Logan and Miss Adele Sautley in sweetest love for aye. The Presbyterian church had been decorated in pink and white by the fair friends of the beautiful bride and it presented a scene of regal loveliness. The colors were white and red and chrysanthemums of those shades, interspersed with palms and lighted here and there with candleabra, also burning those colors, filled the pulpit and chancel. Behind this bank of floral beauty stood the organ and chorus, which made melody for the brilliant occasion. It was under the supervision of Mrs. Bailey and the performers and program were as follows: Organist, Mrs. Steele Bailey; violinist, B. H. Danks; cornetist, Geo. W. DeBord; vocalists, Miss Mary Cowen, Mrs. L. B. Cook, Mrs. J. W. Hayden and Messrs. Carl A. Moore, E. D. Patterson and Joe F. Waters. Intermezzo russe, violin, cornet and organ; bridal chorus from Bridal Rose, full chorus; wedding march, violin, cornet and organ; Bridal March from Lohengrin, full chorus.

The house was packed when the bridal party, a little after 6, entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. James M. Sautley and Mike Chrisman, proceeded down opposite aisles, followed on one side by Miss Jennie Warren and Mr. H. Rowan Sautley, and on the other by Hon. J. N. Saunders and Miss Mary Logan, of Richmond, the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Belle Denny, following the latter and the groom and his best man, Rev. R. A. White, the former couple. At the altar the gentlemen and ladies crossed to opposite sides and the bride and groom met under a large floral design of arrow-pierced hearts, within a large one. In this position and facing Dr. J. V. Logan, the father of the groom, the vows were taken in a ceremony that was as beautiful as it was impressive. The party then left the church from opposite aisles, by which they entered, and repaired to Judge Sautley's, where with a few visiting friends they enjoyed a delightful lunch, exquisitely served. At 9 o'clock the newly wedded pair left in a close carriage for Junction City, accompanied that far by Miss Denny and Mr. White, where they took the train for Atlanta and other Southern points. They will spend nearly a month in the Land of Flowers and be at home to their friends at Middlesboro, Dec. 24.

The bride was charmingly attired in white organdie over white silk, Valenciennes trimmings, white veil and carried bride roses. Miss Denny wore white over pink and the other ladies white over white and each carried carnations. The bride changed her dress to a brown cloth traveling suit before departing.

The loveliness of the bride was the subject of general remark. She is noted for her beauty and modesty and all her charms seemed heightened on the supreme occasion of her life. She is the youngest and last single daughter of Judge and Mrs. M. C. Sautley and her natural gifts have been highly cultivated. She is in every sense a lovable and charming woman, possessed of every trait which makes her sex the admiration of the other, and in choosing her for his life's companion, Mr. Logan has done so, wisely and well. She will make an ideal preacher's wife, "with price far above rubies" and "do him good and not evil all the days of her life." We congratulate him heartily, for he is as worthy as man can be of a good wife. He is possessed to a remarkable degree of the finer feelings, noble by nature and having cultivated his talents is rapidly rising in his profession. During his ministry here he made friends of every one he met and there is not a person, who does not join in gratulations over his good fortune and his prospect of a life time of happiness with the woman of his choice. The writer, who holds them both in friendship and admiration, simply expresses the feelings of the community, when he tenders them heartfelt good wishes that they may realize all the joys of present life and then live together forever in that which is to come.

The number and costliness of the bridal presents attested the popularity of the bride. They included nearly everything for house keeping, either necessary or ornamental, besides a $100 silver water service presented by the members of the Stanford bar.

Reports of the silver-mining companies show that in many cases the cost of producing silver is now less than 25 cents per ounce, and that the silver used in the manufacture of a dollar would now probably cost about 20 cents.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - Nov. 25, 1897

W. P. WALTON.

THE Danville Advocate has not given the matter sufficient thought to name the man, at this period, for Congress, "but until we are convinced that his name is James B. McCreary we are not willing to espouse his candidacy to the exclusion of any one else. We prefer to be in a position to support the democrat who in our judgment will make the best race, and if in time it is demonstrated that the nomination of ex-Congressman McCreary will be the best for the democratic party, we will give him our cordial support." All of which is very nice, very nice indeed. In fact the Advocate is a mighty smooth paper. Gov. McCreary has shown what he can do and by his works we know him. If, however, a better man and a surer runner can be named, we are for him over the governor or anybody else.

Praise ye the Lord. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for His mercy endureth forever.

EDITOR BOSLEY, of the Paris Reporter, wants the Negroes to boycott those of their race who allowed themselves to be guarded in barns on election day and calls on all the clubs and societies to deny them membership and turn them out if already in. Brer. Bosley should not be too hard on those who have given the republicans all they ever had this State. They are tired of living on promises from his party and hereafter are going to put their votes where they will do the most good, or withhold them entirely for their own interest. While he is at it, the ex-Lincoln man might put in a few words against his own color selling their votes. Three of them sell to one of the poor black man, who is no longer loved by the rads since he has shown a little will of his own.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.

THE other papers are having a great deal of fun over the democratic meeting at Louisville last Saturday, which they say was for nothing else except to boom the Dispatch. The Lexington Herald is the most hilarious of the lot, and absolutely grows funny in discussing the question of the duties of the committee appointed to get subscriptions to the capital stock and increase the patronage of the Dispatch. We observe that the editor of this paper is named as the committeeman for the 8th district, but he at least can not accept the unsought honor. He wishes the Dispatch well in all its legitimate undertakings, but his own paper takes every bit of 14 hours a day six days of every week in the year.

Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is unfeignedly thankful for all the blessings vouchsafed to it, the county and the nation, but for several days its editor has been undergoing the tortures of a billion attacks and is therefore incompetent to the task of expressing himself in fitting terms. Our readers will please take it all for granted, as many of them know that when one has such an attack he feels more like expressing himself in words with many dashes in them instead of in those on thanksgiving occasions made and provided.

A REPUBLICAN club at Louisville is going to send delegates to Columbus to help prevent the election of Hanna, who sent a man to Frankfort to prevent the election of anybody but Hunter. If the Louisville crowd succeed as well as Hanna didn't succeed, the boss' seat in the Senate will soon be warmed by a better man. Hanna has been on the down grade ever since Bradley warned him to attend to his own business and when a man starts down hill, every thing seems greased for an easy descent.

ALREADY, it is said, John B. Thompson, of Harrodsburg, is preparing to shy his castor into the ring again for Congress. If he does, it is to be hoped he has better running qualities than before. —Jesseamine Journal. Don't you bother about John B. He can't run. That was demonstrated a year ago.

THE Mt. Sterling papers are engaged in a wordy war over the question whether foot ball shall be allowed there. It seems to be a waste of energy. Let the game go on. Those who play it are the only sufferers and if one gets killed or severely hurt, it will furnish a live item for once for the papers of that city.

THE Glasgow News offers to bet that when the nomination for Congress is made in this district, Gov. McCreary will be found astraddle of it. There will be no takers to that bet. Gov. McCreary is as dead sure to be nominated as the day arrives.

THANKSGIVING DAY dawned with clouded skies and prospect of rain.

JOHN YOUNG BROWN is said to be casting wistful eyes at the governorship again. But one term of that thankless office ought to do a man, Eh Gov. Bradley?

POLITICS

James N. Kehoe, democrat, of Maysville, has announced for Congress in the 9th district.

John P. Haswell, Jr., of Breckinridge county, has shied his castor in the ring for Speaker of the House.

The auditor will refuse to pay any money to circuit clerks until they pay back felony fees wrongfully paid them.

The Barren county grand jury returned an indictment against Representative John B. Depp, charging false swearing.

J. R. Collier, postmaster at Franklin, has forwarded his resignation to Washington. He will be succeeded by Thoms Symphon.

A reported decision by the president that the reduction of an employee in the government service is virtually a removal and therefore can not be made.

There are times when there is nothing in a name. George White, of North Carolina, is the only colored member of Congress.—Georgetown Times.

The auditor is making out bills against the Kentucky circuit clerks to recover about $30,000 collected by them in fees to which the appellate court says they are not entitled.

Henry S. Boutelle, republican, was elected to Congress in the Sixth Illinois district at a special election, but the republican plurality is reduced from 6,539 a year ago to less than 900.

The secretary of State has refused articles of incorporation to the "Wholesale and Retail Coal Dealers' Association of Kentucky," a concern organized by about 50 business men of Lexington.

Attorney General McKenna, of California, will resign from the cabinet next month to succeed Justice Field on the supreme court bench. It has not been decided who will fill the cabinet vacancy.

Sam J. Shackelford, the newly elected clerk of the court of appeals, does not take charge of the office until the first Monday in September, 1898, but he will hold until 1903, or a little more than five years.

We do not know Gov. McCreary's intentions with regard to making the race for Congress but we do know that he is receiving much urgent solicitation throughout the district to become a candidate. As appropriate to the subject the Climax reprints on its first page the very strong position taken by Editor Walton, of the Stanford Semi-Weekly INTERIOR JOURNAL.

The Louisville Post prints a picture of Judge R. J. Breckinridge with this comment: "Editor Walton, of the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL, has nominated Judge R. J. Breckinridge, of Danville, for the democratic nomination for attorney general, and other papers throughout the 8th district are seconding the motion. Judge Breckinridge is a younger brother of the famed silver-tongued orator of Fayette, and has for years been a prominent member of the bar of Danville."

The prodigality of the pension roll is responsible for enormous taxation and for much of our present financial troubles, says the Courier-Journal. That the ranks of pensioners are full of frauds admits of no doubt, and the prospect of the speedy addition of at least 100,000 more is an alarming suggestion. The expenses of the government are already far out running its revenues, and the support of a greater army of dependents than the masters of the war ever showed must soon call for additional taxation.

News Briefly Told

J. K. Megibben, a distiller and turfman of Cynthiana, has failed.

John E. Liggett, the millionaire tobacco man of St. Louis, is dead.

During the year ending August 31, the fire loss in Louisville was $79,012.70.

John Ryan, Sr., one of the richest and most widely known men in the South, died at Atlanta.

Amos F. Eno has surprised New York by sending his checks to creditors for debts contracted 36 years ago.

John Avinger and family, living near Greenville, Ind., were poisoned by eating poke root for horse radish.

Clara Tuck, a colored woman, aged 65 years, dropped dead while attending a baptizing at Peedee, Christian county.

Citizens of Nashville, Tenn., presented a silver service to the gunboat Nashville at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

A portion of the ceiling of Representatives' Hall at Frankfort fell, and the chamber may not be ready for occupancy till January 1.

A stove in an Ohio Valley passenger coach exploded while the train was near Dekoven. The car was wrecked and several persons were badly injured.

The C. & O. has opened three miles more of double track in the vicinity of Maysville. This makes 20 miles of double track on the Cincinnati division of this road.

The condition of the Spanish soldiers in Cuba is said to be pitiable. Many are dying by the roadside and the forts in the interior are nothing more than hospitals.

Sam Jones was fined $20 for disorderly conduct at Lexington Tuesday. You can guess whether it was the preacher or not.

By a vote of 11 to 3 the city council of Bloomington, Ill., defeated a resolution to prohibit football within the city limits.

Kentucky coal mines are working night and day, but owing to the numerous strikes the output will be below the average.

Surgeon General Wyman's report of the late yellow fever epidemic shows 4,289 cases and 446 deaths, a fatality of 10 1/2 per cent.

In Rome, N. Y., the other day a woman arrested for shoplifting was wearing eight pairs of trousers fastened to the inside of her dress.

Ten Mexico City police officers and patrolmen have been sentenced to death for assassination of the would-be assassin of President Diaz.

John Borsman was seriously wounded and his wife and child were instantly killed by a train running into their carriage near Warsaw, Ind.

Grief and chagrin over the disgrace of his father, who embezzled $60,000 entrusted to him, drove James Charnley, Jr., to suicide at Chicago.

W. Jay Koener, the newspaper artist, who was sentenced to death in New York for murdering his sweetheart, was granted a new trial.

The latest thing in trusts is a combine of the manufacturers of wood-working machinery. The organization has a capital stock of $8,500,000.

William Cherrington, a traveling salesman from Gallipolis, O., stepped off of a street car at Catlettsburg, this State, and was run over and killed.

Secretary Gage affirmed the decision allowing the rebate of over a million dollars on the whisky destroyed in the Pleasure Ridge Park distillery fire.

John Smith, a farmer, living near LaGrange, Ind., committed suicide by hanging. When his body was found rats had gnawed his face almost completely off.

A Federal grand jury has indicted Luke Usher, president of the defunct National Bank of Potsdam, N. Y., on 11 counts, alleging the misappropriation of $700,000.

Shrewd Yankees are down South robbing the Negroes under the pretense of getting Congress to enact a law pensioning ex-slaves and deserve the sincerest condemnation.

Gold was first discovered in Colorado in 1858 and since then the State has produced $530,000,000 in gold and silver. Out of 56 counties in the State 23 are gold producers.

At Tusculum, Ala., a white man named Will Clark, was sentenced to life imprisonment for criminally assaulting a colored girl, aged 14, when he should have been hanged.

J. C. Dunham, who murdered six persons, among them his wife, in Santa Clara county, Cal., was arrested at Mulberry, Ark. A reward of $11,000 had been offered for his arrest.

A woman who brought suit in the Federal court of Indianapolis, Ind., for $100,000 for alleged infringements of patents and trade marks for cosmetics has compromised for $50 cash.

George A. Taylor, cashier of the defunct Argentine Bank at Kansas City, Kan., was sent to the penitentiary for four years for receiving deposits when he knew the bank was insolvent.

The maddest man lives in Indianapolis. He sued for and recovered $3,000 which he lost in a faro bank and after his case was won he found that under the Indiana law the money went to his wife.

It will cost the city of St. Louis $100,000 this year to supply all its schools with free text books, and being reluctant to expend as much money at once, the city will only make a beginning of it, intending to make the supply complete in time.

The president has pardoned another embezzling bank cashier, this time a man who had stolen $50,000 and had received a five years' penitentiary sentence. The forger and embezzler are more dangerous to society than the burglar, and their crimes, if on a large scale, cause more misery than assassinations.

Anderson, of Garrard, sold to D. M. Anderson, of this county, 14 yearling steers at $24.84.

The unicycle sulky has been patented and with it all records are promised to be smashed.

W. J. Goodwin shipped more than $2,000 worth of dried apples this week.

—Somerset Paragon.

Thomas Hill bought of various parties in the East End some sheep at 24c and butcher cattle at 24c.

Frank Thompson bought of Joseph Coffey some butcher stuff at 24c and a bunch of fat hogs at 3c.

At San Antonio, Texas, Monday, sales of cattle were made aggregating 10,000 head and bringing $199,000.

W. I. Herrin sold at Lancaster Monday a lot of 700-pound yearling cattle at 34c. He also sold some butcher stuff at 24c.

At Lexington Monday, R. H. Brobaugh won with Kitty B. and James B. Gentry got second money with Annie Taylor.

President Schutte and Secretary Price, of the Louisville Running Association, are trying to secure the Nashville track.

Henry Jarrett, 210 1/2, owned by J. R. Rogers, of Bourbon, died from the effects of injuries received while in a race at Terre Haute.

Sol Sharp, the famous bookmaker and turfman, died in Cincinnati of pneumonia. He was worth several hundred thousand dollars.

James Thompson sold 132 export cattle, average weight about 1,400 pounds, to W. B. Kidd, of Winchester, for 4.40 per cwt.—Bourbon News.

At Montreal the stables of Cyrille Laurin were burned, together with several valuable horses. Antidote, record 2:10 1/4, valued at $20,000, was among the number.

James Walker Givens started to Lexington, Miss., Tuesday with a car load of horses, including a $400 trotter he recently bought of Shelby T. Harbison, of Lexington.

The Democrat says there were 800 cattle on the Winchester market Monday. The highest price realized was for a lot of 1,100-pounders, which brought 3.85. Fat hogs sold at 3c.

Farris & Whitley sold to Weihi, to go this week, 105 export cattle at 44 and 90 feeders at 34. The above firm has bought 1,000 barrels of corn of various parties at $1.75 delivered.—Advocate.

Mr. R. N. Beasley, Madison's king tobacco buyer of Paint Lick, bought tobacco from different parties in that 75,000 pounds of tobacco on an average of $6.25 per hundred.—Richmond Climax.

A Kansas farmer, John Graham, of Abilene, has grown a sweet potato which he says is the largest in the world. It is 25 inches in circumference and nine inches in length. It weighs 9 1/2 pounds.

Tom Small, once a famous jockey, was tried in the police court at St. Louis on the charge of begging, and was given four hours to leave town. He was the oldest jockey on the turf, and some years ago was worth $40,000, and was a familiar figure at Latonia, Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend. He is 69 years old.

A hoghead of new tobacco grown in Bourbon county was sold on the market yesterday at $20 a hundred pounds. A crop of six hogheads, of which this was one, realized an average of $13.60. Very little new tobacco is coming in, but it is averaging about three times the price received at this time last year.—Courier-Journal.

Wagers & Cohen bought during the past week 80 cattle of S. A. Deatherage, 39 of C. T. Wells, 30 of J. B. Ellison, 34 of Breck Maupin, 29 of W. S. Jones and 88 of J. S. Collins. All were feeders, ranging in weight from 800 to 1,000 pounds. The price was from 3 to 3 1/2 cents. They also bought 500 fat hogs of various parties at from 2 1/2 to 3 cents.—Richmond Register.

The world's shipments of wheat last week were 9,805,000 bushels, but while this was large, for they compare to 9,261,000 bushels last week, and to 9,807,000 bushels for the corresponding week last year, an unusually large part of this was from the United States, while Russia, the only real competitor of the United States, was furnishing less than her quota.

Webster's International Dictionary

Successor of the "Unabridged." The One Great Standard Authority. So written Hon. D. B. Brewer, Justice U. S. Supreme Court.

Standard of the U. S. Court Printing Office, the U. S. Supreme Court, all the State Supreme Courts, and nearly all the Schoolbooks. Warmly Recommended by State Superintendents of Schools, College Presidents, and other Educators. Invaluable in the household, and to the teacher, scholar, professional man, and self-educator.

THE BEST FOR PRACTICAL USE.

It is easy to find the word wanted. It is easy to ascertain the pronunciation. It is easy to trace the growth of a word. It is easy to learn what a word means. The Raleigh News & Observer says: "Our individual preferences were formerly for another dictionary, but a better acquaintance with the latest edition of Webster (the International) has led us to regard it as the most valuable, and to consider it as the standard dictionary should be to school." SALES.—Judge W. E. Varnon sold to Mrs. D. W. Vandever his residence on the Cut-off pike for $4,500, and bought of S. P. Staggs the cottage on Logan Avenue occupied by William Moreland for $2,250. *

No Thanksgiving turkey had been sent us up to the hour of going to press, but Mr. Cicero Reynolds was clever enough to present the editor and business manager with some birds which will have to take the place of the festive turkey. *

LOUIS DETTLINGER was fined $5 for contempt of court by Judge Miller at Louisville for saying "aber nit." Thus does history repeat itself. Judge Sauley fined a man the same amount once for addressing him familiarly while on the bench as "Brother." *

SINCE removing the unsightly building from the corner of Main and Mill Street, Mr. J. C. Hays is greatly improving his lot by grading the yard and enclosing it in a neat fence, the front to be of stone two feet high, with an iron one on that of 18 inches. *

A SINGLE nifty toll-gate keeper defied a lot of raiders in Nelson county and the cowards tucked their tails and departed. Let the toll-gate keepers in this county emulate his example if they are troubled in a similar manner, which by the way we believe will not be done. *

THE Fremont Company, which is composed of good actors, played here three nights this week to losing business. They really deserve a good patronage, but our people have gotten used to 50 and 75c shows and could not be made to believe that they could see a good one for 10, 20 and 30c. *

ARCH JONES, colored, started in on his Thanksgiving drunk Wednesday afternoon and was venting his wrath on those Negroes who failed to vote, when Marshal Newland ran across him. He was taken before Judge Carson, who fined him $5. A few moments later he was found guilty of another charge, when another fine of $5 was added. *

THE next entertainment at Walton's Opera House will be one of unusual excellence. The Boston Stars, a company of much musical note, will give a concert on the evening of Dec. 11, which ought to draw all the music lovers in this section. The Anderson, Ind., Herald, says of them: A more delighted audience never crossed the threshold of an auditorium in Anderson than that which turned from the Christian church at 10 o'clock last night. Four hundred people had been charmed for more than two hours. *

LUCKY FIND.—Some 18 months ago Thomas H. Shanks, while out at Mr. John G. Lynn's, took a bath in a pond on his farm. He was wearing his mother's engagement ring and it slipped from his finger while in the water. Mrs. Shanks was naturally worried over the loss, but had long since given it up as gone forever. A few days ago, while the pond was being cleaned out, a Negro boy found and returned it to Mrs. Shanks, who is by far prouder of it than the day it was presented. *

WRECK.—An ugly wreck three miles South of Hazel Patch was caused Wednesday morning by the first section of freight No. 32 running into the second section of No. 30. Eleven cars of coal and four others, also loaded, were dinged and the engine of 32, which left the track, was buried under the debris. The engineer and fireman both saved their lives by jumping, but the latter had one of his arms severely hurt. No. 30 had stopped on Crooked Hill to make some repairs and when her flagman went back to set his signal No. 32 came thundering down the track causing the above trouble. The morning passenger due here at 3:15 did not arrive until nearly 8 o'clock. *

THE Rowland public school, Logan R. Hughes, principal, and N. W. Hughes, assistant, closed a successful term Tuesday afternoon, when a pleasing program was rendered. A large number of the patrons of the school were present. *

HAYDEN HURT.—This from yesterday's Lexington Herald, will be sad news to the young man's many friends here: "Mr. C. H. Hayden, postal clerk on the C. & O. between Lexington and Ashland, had all of the fingers on his right hand broken and badly mashed in an accident near Morehead Tuesday. In manipulating the lever to grab a mail pouch at one of the smaller stations, his hand was caught between the face of the door and the lever. No physician being on the train, he was forced to leave the mangled hand unattended until he reached this city. The injury will prevent his return to duty for several months. *

PIKES FREED.—The fiscal court met Tuesday and made considerable progress towards the final freeing of all the pikes. *

The Crab Orchard & Danville pike, through its officers, agreed to accept $900 a mile for its 16 1/2 miles. The county's interest of about $1,000 to be deducted, and to take the county bonds, if the Chicago firm did not. This was accepted. *

The Turnersville, McKinney & Coffey's Mill Turnpike pike, 6 miles, was bought for the individual stock of $2,000, the county already owning the balance. *

The Stanford & Lancaster pike, 6 1/2 miles, and including the new iron bridge over Dix River, was taken for $3,500. *

Those three roads were freed yesterday and the poles on them arose to go down no more forever. *

Knob Lick and Stanford pike, 7 1/2 miles, was offered by President C. Fowler at $437 a mile, provided the Chicago firm takes the bonds. The offer was accepted but the poles will not be taken down till the Chicago people are heard from. The company says its road is for sale and it is going to sell it on other terms if this fails. *

The following roads made offers: Danville & Lancaster, 2 1/2 miles at $260; Lancaster & Crab Orchard, 5 1/2 miles, $800 per mile; Cut off pike at Stanford, two miles for $500, and Stanford & Hustonville, 10 miles, at $800. Court offered last named $500, but it was declined. *

Squires John Bailey and John Edmiston were appointed a committee to examine the Lancaster and Crab Orchard pike and report. *

The court will meet again next Tuesday, 30th, when they will hear bids for the other roads and take what action may be necessary against those who do not come to time. *

While at Lancaster Monday an I. J. reporter had the pleasure of attending the chrysanthemum show given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church of that place. Every species of the beautiful winter flower was on exhibition and the arrangement was exceedingly artistic. The ladies were obliging and kindly gave the names of the various varieties and in a few moments the reporter learned more about flowers than he ever dreamed of knowing. The amount realized for the splendid cause was large and the good ladies are to be congratulated on the success of their enterprise. *

(Mark envelope "Two-Step.") We are giving this music, which is regular 50-cent sheet music, at this exceedingly low rate, for the purpose of advertising, and testing the value of the different papers as advertising mediums. E. O. McCormick, Pass. Traffic Manager, "Big Four Route," Cincinnati, O. *

Mention this paper when you write. *

A Kansas editor thus tells of his joys and sorrows: "Our road tax this year was $1. We could not pay it and have been sentenced to work the road for 15 days. There will be no issue of this paper for the next two weeks. But the county will have to board us, so we will come out $6 ahead." *

The biggest job of work done in the Hardin circuit court was accomplished Thursday, when one jury in less than an hour sent eight Negroes to the penitentiary for terms extending from five to 12 years, for burglary and grand larceny.—News. *

The assistant postmaster general has issued an order prohibiting the writing of directions for delivery on third or fourth-class mail matter or the writing or printing of same on second-class matter. *
